RELIGIOUS PURPOSE STATEMENT

Living Stones Christian University is established and operated exclusively for religious, theological, ministerial, and ecclesiastical purposes consistent with the historic Christian faith and the institution's Statement of Faith. The University exists to provide biblically grounded Christian education designed to prepare students for Christian ministry, discipleship, theological study, church leadership, missions, and related religious vocations.

The institution's educational mission is centered upon the authority of the Holy Bible as the inspired Word of God and seeks to integrate biblical truth, Christian character development, spiritual formation, and ministry preparation throughout all academic programs and institutional activities.

All degree programs offered by Living Stones Christian University are religious in nature and are specifically designed to prepare students for service within churches, ministries, faith-based organizations, Christian education, missions, discipleship, pastoral support roles, and other ecclesiastical contexts. The institution does not offer secular degree programs or programs intended to prepare students for state-regulated professional licensure.

Living Stones Christian University offers the following religious degree programs:

Undergraduate Programs

- Bachelor of Arts in Christian Theology
- Bachelor of Arts in Christian Ministry

Graduate Programs

- Master of Arts in Christian Theology
- Master of Arts in Christian Ministry

Instruction is delivered primarily through fully online educational methods utilizing the institution's Learning Management System (LMS), allowing students to pursue theological and ministry education in an accessible and flexible format while maintaining academic structure and institutional oversight.

The institution's programs, curriculum, instructional activities, and institutional policies are developed in furtherance of its sincerely held religious beliefs, Christian mission, and ecclesiastical objectives. Academic instruction emphasizes biblical studies, theology, Christian ministry, apologetics, church history, spiritual formation, and practical ministry preparation from a Christian worldview.

Living Stones Christian University operates as a religious educational institution pursuant to applicable provisions of Florida law governing religious institutions offering programs exclusively religious in nature, including Section 1005.06(1)(f), Florida Statutes.

The University does not participate in Title IV federal financial aid programs and does not represent itself as a state-licensed professional school or as an institution offering programs leading to governmental licensure or secular professional certification.

This statement is provided to affirm the exclusively religious purpose, mission, and character of Living Stones Christian University and its academic programs.
